

THE FANS WON'T LET YOU DOWN

*Come on England stand in line, cos the fans won't let you down!
Come on England now's the time, cos we wanna see you wear that crown!
Come on England we've had to wait, we've waited far too long,
Now we wanna cheer, we wanna celebrate, while we sing our football song.*

We'll all be praying in our millions,
That we'll be playing like 1970 Brazilians.
These ain't no plays, this ain't the palladium,
They're serious days in a football stadium.

*Come on England stand in line, cos the fans won't let you down!
Come on England now's the time, cos we wanna see you wear that crown!
Come on England we've had to wait, we've waited far too long,
Now we wanna cheer, we wanna celebrate, while we sing our football song.*

Our fans ain't that pretty, they're the barmy army.
They'll be flooding your city like a full-on tsunami.
There'll be celebrations when our boys are scoring,
So listen other nations, three lions are roaring.

*Come on England stand in line, cos the fans won't let you down!
Come on England now's the time, cos we wanna see you wear that crown!
Come on England we've had to wait, we've waited far too long,
Now we wanna cheer, we wanna celebrate, while we sing our football song.*

Eng-a-land, Eng – land, Eng-a-land, Eng – land
